New Collective Agreement

On Thursday May 5th 2011 a new Collective Agreement on the private labour market was signed on behalf of the trade unions.

Workers in the country who are members of the unions within The Icelandic Confederation of Labour (ASÍ) have had no agreement with their employers for almost half a year. During this period purchasing power has decreased, we have been facing growing unemployment, many have experienced a sharp drop in their income as working hours have been cut and many have to accept job sharing and part time work. The bargaining negotiations of last months have been especially difficult for the negotiators as increase in wage payments have been dragged for months when people really need a pay rise. It has been of great help to our negotiators that people in the unions have been very supportive and all decisions have been made in complete agreements. The new agreement will be put to vote in the trade unions and has to be ratified before May 25th in order to come in to force.

It is clear that if the unions and employers had not reached an agreement the road was open for serious industrial disputes as the trade unions had started preparing for massive strikes in the country.

Increases in wages

According to the agreement all wages will rise at least by 11,4% in the next 3 years. Minimum wages will however rise by 23,6%.

Special payments (because how late the agreement was made)

In June workers in full time work in the months March – May will be paid 50.000 kr. once. Workers who left employment in April or who are in part time work will be paid proportionally according to time worked in March and April. Workers who started to work in April and are in work on May 5 will be paid proportionally according to time worked in March and April.

Special payment in addition to the Vacation supplement in 2011: 10.000 kr.

Special payment in addition to the December supplement in 2011: 15.000 kr.

Other issues

The agreement deals with many issues other than wages such as rights in case of accident, pension rights, overtime work and time-of, calculation of overtime pay, definition of shift work, week-end work and meal breaks and insurances in case of accidents when working outside Iceland.

In relation to the collective agreement the government, after dialogue with the trade unions and the employers organisation, issued a statement on many issues in the interest of workers. The statement deals with issues like unemployment and welfare benefits, taxes, education and active employment measures and workers pension rights. The statement has to be seen as an important and integrated part of the agreement.

The agreement is valid to February 1th 2014.

The agreement is based on some pre conditions. As regards 2011 the conditions are made as regard the statement given by the government on May 5th. For 2012 and 2013 conditions are made as regards inflation, the value of the krona and real wages.

If conditions for 2011 will not hold, the agreement expires on February 1 2012. If the conditions for 2012 and 2013 will not hold, the agreement can be improved if both parties agree or terminated by either or both parties to the agreement. In that case it expires on February 1 2012 or February 1 2013.
